

“Tales of Euclid Beach Park” at the Cleveland History Center

June 25th, 2026

We are excited to invite you to join M.U.S.i.C. on June 25th, at the Cleveland History Center as we present Tales of Euclid Beach Park composed by Chris Neiner. Commissioned by M.U.S.i.C., Tales of Euclid Beach Park will be performed by Maria Beyens, violin, Brendan Phelps, cello, Justin Wisner, clarinet, and Chris Neiner, piano. The performance will also include dancers Lieneke Matte and Antonio Morillo. This is being presented jointly by the Cleveland History Center as part of their celebration of 250 years of America.

The performance begins at 6:30 P.M. Come early and enjoy the museum, ride the carousel, and purchase a glass of wine or another beverage. Enjoy all of this for the cost of admission to the museum ($15 for adults, $10 for students and children). Please let us know if you will be attending. RSVP to stars@intheclassics.org
